The IOM Coordination Office for the Mediterranean launches fully redesigned website www.italy.iom.int

Rome – The increasing visibility of the IOM Coordination Office for the Mediterranean, and the daily media coverage of news and data on migrants' arrivals by sea through the Central Mediterranean Route, called for a thorough renewal of the Mission's website, which was completely redesigned according to the Headquarters' template and is now officially online. The website has also a section dedicated to IOM's research studies and reports. Start exploring the findings of our new publications and our overall activities on the website homepage here.

IOM DG William L. Swing and former UN SG Ban Ki-moon sign the UN-IOM relationship agreement

THE BUZZ

New York – On September 19, during the UN Summit Refugees and Migrants, history was made with IOM formally becoming the first UN body specialized in migration management. "This is a singular honor for our Organization – and a genuine success for migrants and Member States and indeed for this Summit", Ambassador Swing said. Read on
